

NEWSFLASH!!!!!!!!!!!!!! The Twisted Knitter has been challenged to a knit-a-long and that challenge has been accepted!!

My friend Susan Dickerson, owner of The Flying Needles yarn Shop in Williamsburg, VA challenged us to a Knit-A-Long competition on Monday, Aug. 13. The challenge was issued over Facebook Live video. I accepted the gauntlet and the competition starts Saturday Aug. 18 and Tuesday, August 22. Did you get a chance to see the live video?? It was quite funny as Susan caught me completely off guard!

At the heart of the KAL competition is the River Dance Shawl by River of Yarn!
<http://www.ravelry.com/patterns/library/river-dance-3> Each shop will have a little more than a month for team members to complete the River Dance Shawl. Team Twisted Knitter competitors can cast on beginning Tuesday, Aug. 21, during our Tuesday Night Knitting. All Twisted Knitter competitors have until 8 pm Tuesday, Sept. 25, to complete the project. There will be lots of pics taken during this competition so don't be shy!!!!!!

Each completed shawl counts as a point! Competitors can make more than ONE!

Completed project counts will be tallied by River of Yarn's Ravelry Thread – which will be keeping progress and count of completions. Those who do not have a Ravelry page will be assisted by both Susan and Kim for posting their projects to the group thread.
